SOLAR ECLIPSE 2024

The April 8, 2024 eclipse will be a total solar eclipse. During a total solar eclipse, the Moon moves between the Earth and Sun completely obscuring the Sun. All of the United States will experience a partial solar eclipse. An eclipse path sweeps across central Mexico, parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine and southern Canada. During totality, you may view the Sun without proper eye protection, such as solar glasses. But during all other phases of the eclipse, you should only look at the Sun when your eyes are protected.

Safety is the most important thing to consider during any solar eclipse. Looking directly at the Sun is unsafe except during the brief total phase of a solar eclipse ("totality"), when the Moon entirely blocks the Sun's bright face, which will happen only within the narrow path of totality. Before and after totality, the only safe way to look directly at the uneclipsed or partially eclipsed Sun is through special-purpose solar filters, such as "eclipse glasses" or hand-held solar viewers. Homemade filters or ordinary sunglasses, even very dark ones, are not safe for looking at the Sun. After this eclipse on April 8, 2024, the next total solar eclipse that can be seen from the contiguous United States will be on Aug. 23, 2044.

Keeping Your Home and Communities Beautiful

It is almost that time of year again when the weather will be getting nice and residents will be enjoying the outside. Take the time to pick up the trash, leaves, and debris from the window wells, areas around your unit, in hedges, on patios, and around trash receptacles. This will help beautify the neighborhood and prevent you from receiving fines. All tenants, in all communities, need to keep the inside of the units and surrounding areas neat and clean. Also remember to call in work orders as problems arise, do not wait until it is time for your housing inspection.

Friendly Reminders for ZMHA Residents

If you are on the list for BED BUGS, MACO Pest Control will be coming every Thursday to treat your apartment until the bed bugs are gone and this includes Manor and Outer Units.
